

A Prayer For Boldness

Father, in the name of Jesus, I am of good courage. I pray that you grant me that with all boldness, I speak forth your word. I pray that freedom of utterance be given me that I may open my mouth to proclaim boldly the mystery of the good news of the Gospel – that I may declare it boldly as I ought to do.

Father, I believe I receive that boldness now in the name of Jesus. Therefore, I have boldness to enter into the Holy of Holies by the blood of Jesus. Because of my faith in Him, I dare to have the boldness (courage and confidence) of free access – an unreserved approach to you with freedom and without fear. I can draw fearlessly and confidently and boldly near to your throne of grace and receive mercy and find grace to help in good time for my every need. I am bold in prayer. I come to the throne of God with my petitions, and for others who do not know how to ascend to the throne.

I will be bold toward Satan, demons, evil spirits, sickness, disease, and poverty, for Jesus is the Head of all rule and authority – of every angelic principality and power. Disarming those enemies arrayed against us, Jesus made a bold display and public example of them triumphing over them. I am bold to say, “Satan, you are a defeated foe, for my God and my Jesus reign!”

I take comfort. I am encouraged and I confidently and boldly say, “The Lord is my Helper, I will not be seized with alarm – I will not fear or dread or be terrified. What can man do to me?” I dare to proclaim the word toward heaven, toward hell, and toward earth. I am bold as a lion for I have been made the righteousness of God in Christ Jesus. I am complete in Him! Praise the name of Jesus! Amen.
